RE: Rosenthal/Lanza legislation (A-8704-C / S-6340-A)

You may have heard that the Airbnb bill is now on Governor Cuomo's desk. He has until midnight on October 29th to either approve or veto this bill. If he does neither of the above (does not act) the bill is 'approved' by operation of law.

He could also ask the Senate/Assembly to considered 'chapter amendments' in the form of a new bill. Chapter amendments likely won't be in our interests particularly given how close we are to achieving a major victory against them.

Please contact the Governor's office either via email or phone (given below) and urge him to sign the bill immediately.
